A.V.Dixit — Petitioner
Vs.
The State of Maharashtra & ors. — Respondents

Mr.Uday Warunjikar for petitioners.
Mr.Vinay Sonpal, AGP for Resp.nos.1 to 4.

CORAM: B.H.MARLAPALLE & NARESH H.PATIL,JJ.

October 17, 2006.

P.C.

. Mr.Sonpal, the learned AGP on instructions states that both the petitioners are in the State Government service as at present and the impugned transfer orders have been acted upon. Consequently the petitioners have been repatriated to their parent department and they are presently working under the said Department.

. We have also noted that though separate civil applications were filed praying for stay to the impugned repatriation order, the applications remained pending.

. The petitions are dismissed as infructuous. Rule discharged.

. Civil Application Nos.6567 of 1999 and 6565 of 1999 do not survive and the same stand disposed off.

. We make it clear that dismissal of the petitions would not in any way adversely affect the service benefits as applicable to the petitioners under the parent department.
